This is Bunjil Place.
You will see a sign for Bunjil Place.

Inside Bunjil Place is a gallery. You will see the miffy & friends art exhibition inside.

When you are at the entrance, the glass sliding doors will open automatically, and you will walk in.

There will be a front desk
with friendly staff there.
They will greet you.

You can say hello to the staff. If you have any questions, you can ask them.

May I have
your surname
please?

The staff member will
check your registration
by asking for your
surname for COVID-19
tracing.

From the front desk, the gallery space is in front of you. There is another glass automatic door that will slide open.

There will be an open door.
This is the entrance to the miffy & friends exhibition.

Inside the Gallery, you will see lots of different types of artwork. There are big artworks and small artworks.

Most artworks are on the wall, and some are on the floor or on a stand.

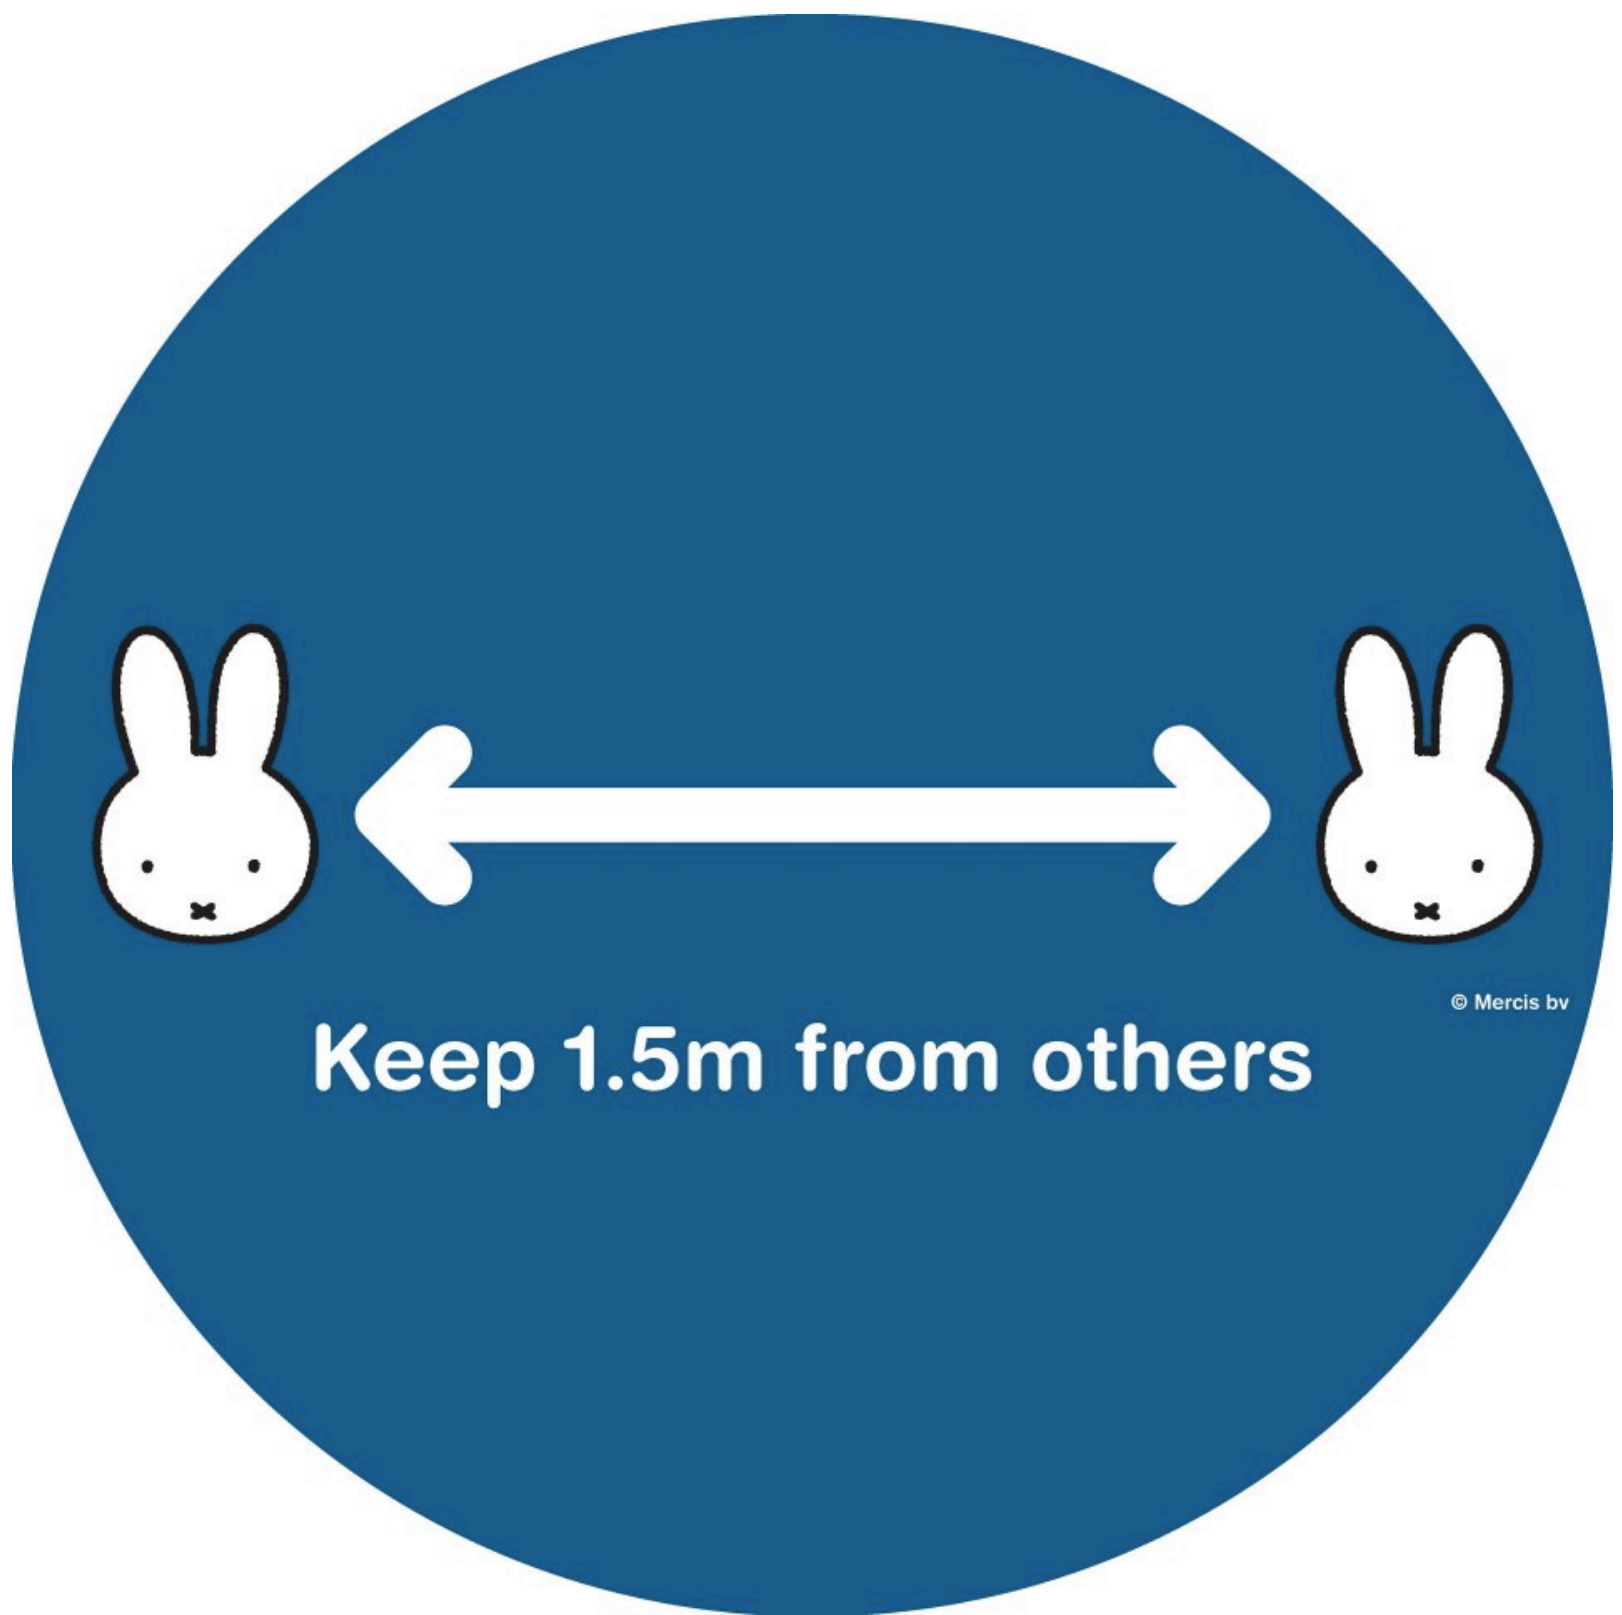

There are colourful artworks,
and black and white artworks.
They are made from different materials. There are paintings, sculptures, collages, prints,
and installations.

When you are inside the gallery, it is important to know the rules. You will follow the rules so you can enjoy your visit and have fun.

Stay 1.5m from other people.

Use your inside voice in
the gallery.

You cannot eat or drink in
the gallery.

Use walking feet in the gallery.

You keep your hands
away from the artworks.
The artworks need to stay safe and clean.

You can photograph or film the artwork, with no
flash.

You will leave the gallery
through another doorway
and then exit the way
you entered.

After the gallery visit, you can visit the miffy &
friends Library nook.

You will enter the
doorway of the library.

A library staff member may say hello.

You will walk past the shelves of books and stairs. In the corner of the library is a special corner with miffy & friends books.

You can sit on the cushions and read the books.

To leave the library, you will go through the same doors you used to enter.

You are always welcome back
at Bunjil Place.
